

***Creative Producer for Events – Creative Production Company*****

45North is looking for an Event Producer, with solid experience of delivering branded experiences and activations, and the desire to grow with a new creative production company making the job their own, and having ownership over the development of the role and the company, to join them and lead projects from brief to on-site delivery.

Key to the role is creativity! The right candidate will have a proven track record in transforming a client brief into an imaginative creative event concept, and seeing beyond the brief to create new and unconventional ideas which will excite the client, and transform events while staying true to the clients' needs. You will be able to take the concept, build your team, and project manage to completion of the event. You'll be skilled in stakeholder and supplier management, leading the project team, and keeping everyone in budget and on schedule throughout the process. You will help build strong client relationships, have an entrepreneurial spirit, and desire to build a new role in a young company.

This is a great chance for a creative events professional to take the next step in their career.

Requirements

- 2 years + practical experience in Event Production or equivalent experience
- Experience in account management desirable
- Ideas person who works and thinks creatively
- Passionate about creative experiences, events and new technologies
- Skills in planning, budgeting and managing teams
- Excellent communication skills
- A talent for multi-tasking multiple projects
- Working with freelance teams
- Ability to meet tight deadlines
- Quick thinking problem solving
- Striving for high standards of excellence
- A team player with the ability to support freelance team members, and bring new junior members on as the company grows
- Flexibility to working days and hours

Job package

- Competitive salary
- Large opportunities for growth
- Flexible working hours

Apply for this job

Email your CV and a covering letter including a brief for your dream event to Jessica at admin@forty-fivenorth.com

Strictly no agencies.

45North is an equal opportunities employer and believes in championing female- identifying and non-binary creatives to become leaders in the industry. We therefore positively encourage applications from candidates, regardless of gender, race, age, sexual orientation or disability.